CHROME DIOPSIDE BEADS NECKLACE

Chrome diopside has long been used to boost creative vision and awareness. This green gemstone is thought to be able to improve intellect and encourages the desire of one to learn. According to metaphysical beliefs, chrome diopside is used to help alleviate aggression or stubbornness while in turn enhancing love and commitment. Green diopside is said to be connected to the heart chakra.

$120.00. Please note photo shows camera lighting, shadows and reflections. Jewelry comes wrapped and packaged in a small colorful tie pouch.
